

Imposition solutions from Ultimate Technographics

HP digital printing partners

Ultimate Technographics at-a-glance

With the introduction of Impostrip 15 years ago, Ultimate Technographics invented the field of digital imposition. Today, the firm is an industry-leading provider of PDF and Postscript imposition for the print industry with advanced technology and applications for digital presses, computer-to-film, computer-to-plate, proofers and digital workflows. The firm is also an active member of the CIP4, as well as a principal JDF developer and integrator.

Ultimate Technographics offers three imposition solutions, including:

- Impostrip
- Impostrip Solo
- Impostrip On-Demand

Ultimate Technographics – advanced imposition solutions

Focusing on the digital printing industry, Ultimate Technographics targets its product line primarily to the publishing and commercial press market sectors. Its solutions are used for many digital print applications, including VDP, web-to-print, label production and industrial printing.

Ultimate Technographics' imposition products deliver a broad feature/benefit set, tailored to each customer's environment.

Worldwide product availability

The Ultimate Technographic's Impostrip line is available for purchase directly in North America and via channel networks in most other countries worldwide. Ultimate Technographics' Impostrip Mac client-server is available in English, Spanish, German, French and Japanese. Its Windows client is available in English only.

Impostrip

Impostrip is able to produce thousands of files each day. It's a professional, full featured, client-server and multi-users solution that insures a predictable, continuous, printing flow to your HP Indigo digital press. Impostrip simplifies the preparation of your print projects, eliminates repetitive set-up, frees up the network to your press, and performs flawlessly with variable data application. Impostrip works seamlessly within a mixed printing environment. Plus, it enables last minute changes and makes repurposing and reprinting of projects virtually effortless. Impostrip also includes the tools and controls to adjust margins, bleeds, insert marks, print options and more.

Additional features:

- Imposition for PDF and 150+ PostScript applications created on Mac, PC and UNIX – composite or separated
- Hot Folder automation with dynamic templates and job settings; drop files of any size in the hot folder and Impostrip will impose the entire job and send it to the press
- Origami module to automate the creation of any template or layout quickly by simply folding the sheet on screen
- A Quick Start movie to introduce you to digital imposition
- Unique interactive preview for both PS & PDF files on OS X where marks and pages can be adjusted or modified on screen
- Mixed collating capabilities within the same project
- Control for bleeds in one or all sides, recognizing bleed crop marks from PDF files
- Anamorphic distortion and page adjustment tools
- Control for creep and margins
- Gang together loose pages of any size with imposed projects

Impostrip Solo

With many of the same features in its multi-user configuration, Impostrip Solo is a client-server imposition solution for either one user or as a single desktop solution. It's also enabled with Hot Folder automation for dynamic templates.
